Corporate Meetings & Events at Talbot Hotel Cork

Your Premier Business Destination in Cork

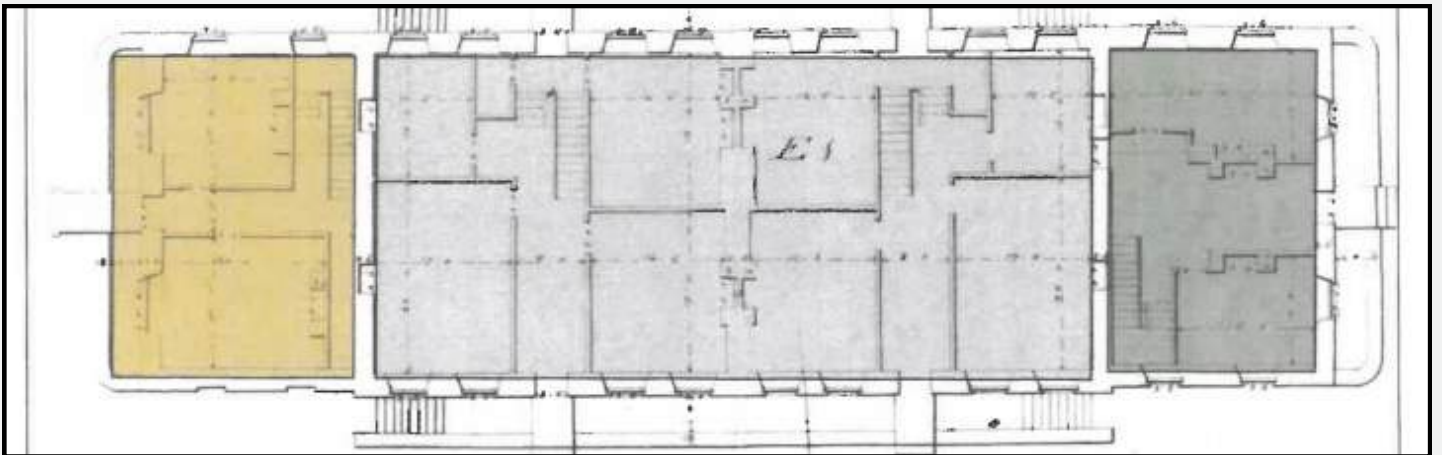

The four-star Talbot Hotel Cork, situated in Ballincollig, has built a strong reputation as a leading venue for conferences, meetings, and corporate events in Cork. Our dedicated conference facilities, exceptional service, and convenient location make us the ideal choice for businesses seeking a professional and seamless event experience.

Indulge with Talbot Hotel Cork

Talbot Hotel Cork offers two superb food outlets including the Oriel Bar & Bistro and the Oriel Restaurant. Our lobby also features a coffee dock, offering a selection of light bites, freshly brewed tea, and coffee—perfect for a quick refreshment between meetings. For a more substantial dining experience, guests can enjoy the inviting atmosphere of the Oriel Bar & Bistro, ideal for networking and corporate gatherings or indulge in our delicious carvery lunches on Sundays.

The Old House - A History

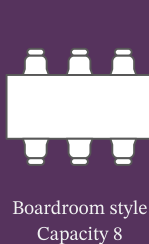

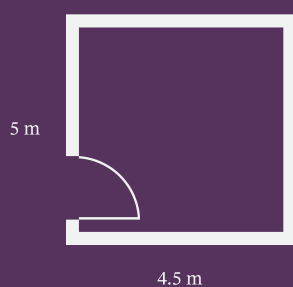

Talbot Hotel Cork, formerly known as Oriel House, holds a rich history spanning over 210 years. Originally built as the headquarters for a gunpowder manufacturing operation, it later became home to both military and civilian residents, deeply embedding itself in the heart of the Ballincollig community. Though now half its original size, the historic house remains a cherished landmark, seamlessly blending its storied past with modern functionality. Today, this beautifully preserved space is home to three elegant meeting rooms and the luxurious Presidential Suite, offering a unique setting where history meets contemporary hospitality. As the hotel continues to evolve, it stands as a testament to its remarkable past, with many more chapters yet to be written.

The Corbally Suite

A refined, intimate space designed for small meetings and private gatherings. With natural daylight and a classic ambiance, it's the perfect setting for exclusive meetings, interviews, or small exhibitions.

The Henry Suite

The Henry Suite at the Talbot Hotel Cork provides an elegant setting for intimate gatherings and focused corporate meetings. Bathed in natural daylight, it's ideal for small social dinners, celebrations, wedding receptions and boardroom meetings. The suite's key feature is its convenient onsite bar, ensuring seamless service and a refined atmosphere for any event.

The Inniskenny Suite

The Inniskenny Suite offers an elegant and versatile space ideal for board meetings, workshops, corporate gatherings and intimate civil ceremonies. With natural daylight and flexible setup options, it provides a professional and comfortable environment for productive meetings.
